

Good Times

From sleepovers to daycare, Friends Forever

Whenever you're in a scary situation you can always count on friends. Everyone has someone he or she can count on for almost anything. Some people still have friendships with their pre-school buddies. These people in our lives are truly what make life fun! A friend is a person who one is fond of and knows well. Each year we make friends with people who share our common interests. Friends are a really important part of life because they are always there when you need them and they will always help you make it through bad times. No matter what, friends, new and old are there till the end and make any time a good time!

1 Meeting for the first time at a very young age, Reagan Fricks and Carly Ford were best friends from the start. They enjoyed seeing each other daily at their day-care center.

2 Over a decade later, Carly and Reagan spend time over at each other's houses and doing homework together. They're still inseparable and very close.

3 Enjoying a snack, Trinity Cox and Jodya Chhoa sit together on the couch. Their friendship is very strong.

4 Even several years later, both Trinity and Jodya remain close. They still love hanging out together.

Dear Carly "Sunshine"

We have all been very blessed having a daughter like you! You light up a room with your smile and giggle. Through your unconditional love, you warm the hearts of those who have had a chance to know you. Living and loving life within the values you hold true has made you the amazing young woman you are today. Thank you for being such a wonderful role model and leader. We are all so very proud of you and the future is yours! You have worked extremely hard, stayed the course, and we are so thankful that you are our daughter, step-daughter and sister. As you approach new chapters in your life, remain true to your heart and be proud of the person you have become. We will be cheering you every step of the way and look forward to watching our "Sunshine" Carly reach her dreams and goals. We love you so very much and will miss you beyond words. Thank you for the beautiful memories!

All our love,
 Mom, Matt, Seth, Will, Dad and Hailey
